PART 5 Forms

PART 5

Part 5 5.1 - 5.5

5.1

The Chief Justice may by Practice Direction prescribe the forms to be used in proceedings before the Court.

5.2

A form may be varied by the Court or a party if the variation is required by the circumstances of a particular case.

5.3

A form must not be varied so as to leave out any information or guidance which the form gives to the recipient.

5.4

Where these Rules require a form to be sent by the Court or by a party for another party to use, it must be sent without any variation except such as is required by the circumstances of the particular case.
