ORDER OF DAVID WILLIAMS

UPON reading the Claimant's Application for Joinder of Claimants dated 28 October 2011;

UPON reading the relevant documents recorded in the court files and observing that no consent for joinder was presented with the Application and accordingly the Application is defective in terms of DIFC Rule 20.16 & DIFC Rule 20.18;

UPON recalling the Extended Civil Restraint Order dated 20 July 2011, which stated inter alia that no future Application or proceedings could be filed by the Claimant without Consent of the Court.

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. The Claimant is declined permission to make the Application for joinder in this proceedings and the Application is dismissed;
2. The registry is under no obligation to take any further steps in regard to this Application.
3. The registry shall not be obliged to receive, consider or process any further similar Applications;

NOTE: The Applicant's attention is drawn to clause paragraph 3 of the Extended Civil Restraint Order dated 20 July 2011 which provides as follows: "For the avoidance of doubt, no appeal and no application for permission to appeal will lie to the Court of Appeal from a decision of a Judge under paragraph 2 of the Order, nor may that Judge's decision be judicially reviewed in Court of First Instance"
