Law governing the Dispute *:	DIFC Trust Law 2018 DIFC Foundations Law 2018
Law giving Rise to the Jurisdiction of the DIFC Courts* :	Dubai Law 12 of 2004 in respect of The Judicial Authority at Dubai International Financial Centre as amended

Remedy Sought

Remedy Sought:	The issues which the DIFCA seeks to have determined by the Court of Appeal in respect of the DIFC Trust Law, Law No.
----------------	---

4 of 2018 (the “Trust Law”) and the DIFC Foundations Law, Law No. 3 of 2018 (the “Foundations Law”), and the answers which the DIFCA proposes should be given to the questions raised in respect of those issues, are as follows:

1. Whether the property referred to in Article 34(1)(d) of the Trust Law can include property located in a jurisdiction which does not recognise trusts?

Proposed answer: Yes

2. Whether having regard to the terms of Article 12(2) of the Foundations Law, a DIFC Foundation may hold property (other than property of the Foundation as defined in the Foundations Law) in trust under the Trust Law?

Proposed answer: Yes

3. Whether the reference in Article 10 of the Trust Law to the common law of trusts and principles of equity:

- (a) includes the common law of trusts and principles of equity as understood under the law of England and Wales;

Proposed answer: Yes

- (b) is limited to the common law of trusts and principles of equity as understood under the law of England and Wales?

Proposed answer: No

Whilst the Court will place great weight on the jurisprudence of the Courts of England and Wales in determining the content of the common law of trusts and principles of equity, its approach to those issues will follow its approach to the application of common law generally, which permits the Court to also have regard to the jurisprudence of other significant common law jurisdictions.

4. Whether, if a trust instrument or foundation charter contains an irrevocable provision of the type referred to in Article 40(11) of the Trust Law or Article 19(10) of the Foundations Law, it is possible for a person other than a national of the jurisdictions specified in the provision to have an interest in the trust or foundation property or derive any benefit under the trust or foundation?

Proposed answer: No

5. Whether, if one or more suitably qualified expert(s) in Shari'a law has or have been appointed an advisory trustee or trustees pursuant to Article 57 of the Trust Law, the responsible trustee may subject to Article 57(3)(c) rely and act upon the advice of the advisory trustee(s) in respect of any matter related to Shari'a compliance which is relevant to the administration of the trust or the exercise of any discretion vested in the responsible trustee?

Proposed answer: Yes

6. Can a waqf that has been validly constituted according to the law of the place of its establishment, subject to compliance with the formalities of the Trust Law or Foundations Law as applicable:

- (a) be recognised as a trust under Article 17 of the Law Relating to the Application of DIFC Laws 2004;

Proposed answer: If the waqf has legal personality in its place of establishment, no. In all other cases, yes;

- (b) be recognised as a foundation under Article 62 of the Foundations Law;

Proposed answer: If the waqf has legal personality in its place of establishment, yes. In all other cases, no;

- (c) be continued as a foundation under Article 56 of the Foundations Law?

Proposed answer: If the waqf has legal personality in its place of establishment and is permitted by the law of that place to change its corporate domicile to the DIFC, yes. In all other cases, no.

7. Can a foundation if approved by another jurisdiction for continuance as a waqf, transfer to that other jurisdiction from the DIFC under Articles 59, 60 and 61 of the Foundations Law?

Proposed answer: Yes

8. Does any provision of the Trust Law prevent recognition of a DIFC trust under the laws of another jurisdiction for the purposes of those laws?

Proposed answer: No

9. Will the transfer of property by a Muslim to a trust or foundation necessarily attract the operation of Article 361 of the Law of Personal Status of the United Arab Emirates?

Proposed answer: Nothing in the Trust Law or Foundations Law has the effect that such a transfer will necessarily attract the operation of that Article.

10. Whether an Order made in proceeding in the Court under the Trust Law or the Foundations Law can be the subject of execution pursuant to Article 7 of the Judicial Authority Law?

Proposed answer: There is no distinction between

Orders of the Court pursuant to the Trust Law or the Foundations Law and any other Orders of the Court for the purposes of Article 7 of the Judicial Authority Law and the Court will follow the procedures set out in that Article in respect of any such Orders.

11. Whether a settlor of a trust may be a shareholder or a director of a company which is trustee of the trust?

Proposed answer: There is no legal reason why a settlor of a trust may not be a shareholder or a director of a company which is trustee of the trust.

12. Whether, if a Muslim settlor expressly desires to establish a trust which is Shari'a compliant, but inadvertently includes in the trust instrument a provision which is not Shari'a compliant, the Court can:

- (a) pursuant to Articles 24(2)(c) and 25(2)(a) of the Trust Law determine that the disposition shall have effect on terms which are Shari'a compliant?
- (b) pursuant to Article 40(8)(a) of the Trust Law vary the terms of the trust so that they are Shari'a compliant?

Proposed answer: In both (a) and (b) above, the Court has power in appropriate circumstances to make such Orders.

13. Whether anything in public policy in the DIFC referred to in Article 9(2)(c) of the Trust Law precludes the establishment of a trust by a person who is not and has never been a Muslim notwithstanding that it may contain terms which would not, if the trust were established by a Muslim, be Shari'a compliant?

Proposed answer: No
