Where a party to proceedings which have gone to trial requires a statement to be included in the judgment as to where, and by what means the claim form issued in those proceedings was served, application should be made to the trial Judge when judgment is given.

36.9

If the Judge so orders, the statement will be included in a preamble to the judgment as entered.

Drawing up and filing of judgments and orders

36.18

Except for orders made by the Court of its own initiative and unless the Court otherwise orders, every judgment or order will be drawn up by the parties.

36.19

Where a judgment or an order is to be drawn up by a party:

- (1) he must file it no later than 48 hours after the date on which the Court ordered or permitted him to draw it up so that it can be sealed by the Court ; and

36.23

If the Court directs the parties to file an agreed statement of terms of an order which the Court is to draw up, the parties must do so no later than 48 hours from the date the order was made, unless the Court directs otherwise.

36.24

If the Court requires the terms of an order which is being drawn up by the Court to be agreed by the parties the Court may direct that a copy of the draft order is to be sent to all the parties:

- (1) for their agreement to be endorsed on it and returned to the Court before the order is sealed; or
- (2) with notice of an appointment to attend before the Court to agree the terms of the order.

- (2) once it has been sealed, the Court must serve a copy of it on each party to the proceedings.

36.26

Unless the Court directs otherwise, any order made otherwise than at trial must be served on:

- (1) the applicant and the respondent; and
- (2) any other person on whom the Court orders it to be served.

Power to require judgment or order to be served on a party as well as his legal representative*36.27

Where the party on whom a judgment or order is to be served is acting by a legal representative , the Court may order the judgment or order to be served on the party as well as on his legal representative .

Agreed orders

36.28

An application for an agreed order must include a draft of the proposed order signed on behalf of all the parties to whom it relates.

36.29

Where proceedings are to be stayed on agreed terms:

(1) The draft order should include the following:

“(1) The Defendant having agreed to the terms set forth in the schedule hereto, IT IS ORDERED THAT all further proceedings in this claim be stayed, except for the purpose of carrying such terms into effect.

(2) Settlement terms should be set out in a schedule attached to the draft order.

When judgment or order takes effect

36.30

A judgment or order takes immediate effect from the time on the day when it is given or made, or such later time or date as the Court may specify.

Time from which interest begins to run

36.31

Where interest is payable on a judgment pursuant to Article 39 of the Court Law 2004, the interest shall begin to run from the date that judgment is given unless:

(1) a Rule in another Part or a Practice Direction makes different provision; or

(2) the Court orders otherwise.

36.32

The Court may order that interest shall begin to run from a date before the date that judgment is given.

Who may apply to set aside or vary a judgment or order

36.33

A person who is not a party but who is directly affected by a judgment or order may apply to have the judgment or order set aside or varied.

Time for complying with a judgment or order

36.34

A party must comply with a judgment or order for the payment of an amount of money (including costs) within 14 days of the date of the judgment or order, unless:

- (1) the judgment or order specifies a different date for compliance (including specifying payment by instalments);
- (2) any of these Rules specifies a different date for compliance; or
- (3) the Court has stayed the proceedings or judgment .

Orders requiring an act to be done

36.35

An order which requires an act to be done (other than a judgment or order for the payment of an amount of money) must specify the time within which the act should be done.

36.36

The consequences of failure to do an act within the time specified may be set out in the order. In this case the wording of the following example suitably adapted must be used:

“Unless the [claimant/defendant] serves his list of documents by 4.00 p.m. on Wednesday, 31 January 2007 his [claim/defence] will be struck out and judgment entered for the [defendant/claimant].”

Non-compliance with a judgment or order

36.37

An order which restrains a party from doing an act or requires an act to be done should, if disobedience is to be dealt with by an application to bring contempt of Court proceedings, have a penal notice endorsed on it as follows:

“If you [name] disobey this order you may be held to be in contempt of Court and may be imprisoned, fined or have your assets seized.”

36.38

The provisions of Rule 36.35 also apply to an order which contains an undertaking by a party to do or not do an act, subject to Rule 36.39.

36.39

The Court has the power to decline to:

(1) accept an undertaking; and

(2) deal with disobedience in respect of an undertaking by contempt of Court proceedings, unless the party giving the undertaking has made a signed statement to the effect that he understands the terms of his undertaking and the consequences of failure to comply with it.

36.40

The statement may be endorsed on the order containing the undertaking or may be filed in a separate document such as a letter.

Correction of errors in judgments and orders

36.41

The Court may at any time correct an accidental slip or omission in a judgment or order.

36.42

An application for a correction must be made by application notice and the standard application fee should be paid. The application notice should be precise in describing the nature of the error, should set out the exact wording of the correction sought and, where appropriate should be accompanied by a draft order. An application may be dealt with without a hearing:

- (1) where the applicant so requests;
- (2) with the consent of the parties; or
- (3) where the Court does not consider that a hearing would be appropriate.

36.43

The Judge 43 may deal with the application without notice if the slip or omission is obvious or may direct notice of the application to be given to the other party or parties.

36.44

If the application is opposed it should, if practicable, be listed for hearing before the Judge who gave the judgment or made the order.

36.45

The Court has an inherent power to vary its own orders to make the meaning and intention of the Court clear.

36.46

Where the Court allows an application to correct an order and the reason for the error was a clerical mistake on the part of the Registry, the application fee will be refunded.

Cases where Court gives judgment both on claim and counterclaim*36.47

Rule 36.48 applies where the Court gives judgment for specified amounts both for the claimant on his claim and against the claimant on a counterclaim.

36.48

If there is a balance in favour of one of the parties, it may order the party whose judgment is for the lesser amount to pay the balance.

36.49

In a case to which Rule 36.48 applies, the Court may make a separate order as to costs against each party.

Judgment in favour of certain part owners relating to the detention of goods*36.50

In Rule 36.51 'part owner' means one of two or more persons who have an interest in the same goods.

36.51

Where:

- (1) a part owner makes a claim relating to the detention of the goods; and
- (2) the claim is not based on a right to possession;

any judgment or order given or made in respect of the claim is to be for the payment of damages only, unless the claimant had the written authority of every other part owner of the goods to make the claim on his behalf as well as for himself.

II DECLARATORY JUDGMENTS*36.52

The Court may make binding declarations whether or not any other remedy is claimed.

III PREPARATION OF DOCUMENTS UNDER AN ORDER

(3) that any item in the account is erroneous in respect of amount; or

(4) that in any other respect the account is inaccurate;

must, unless the Court directs otherwise, give written notice to the accounting party of his objections.

36.62

The written notice referred to in Rule 36.61 must, so far as the objecting party is able to do so:

- (1) state the amount by which it is contended that the account understates the amount received by the accounting party;
- (2) state the amount which it is contended that the accounting party should be treated as having received in addition to the amount he actually received;

36.63

Allowances*36.64

In taking any account all just allowances shall be made without any express direction to that effect.

Management of proceedings*36.65

The Court may at any stage in the taking of an account or in the course of an inquiry direct a hearing in order to resolve an issue that has arisen and for that purpose may order that points of claim and points of defence be served and give any necessary directions.

Delay*36.66

If it appears to the Court that there is undue delay in the taking of any account or the progress of any inquiry the Court may require the accounting party or the party with the conduct of the inquiry, as the case may be, to explain the delay and may then make such order for the management of the proceedings (including a stay ) and for costs as the circumstances may require.

Distribution

36.67

Where some of the persons entitled to share in a fund are known but there is, or is likely to be, difficulty or delay in ascertaining other persons so entitled, the Court may direct, or allow, immediate payment of their shares to the known persons without reserving any part of those shares to meet the subsequent costs of ascertaining the other persons.
