PART 24

Grounds for immediate judgment 24.1 - 24.2

24.1

The Court may give immediate judgment against a claimant or defendant on the whole of a claim, part of a claim or on a particular issue if:

(1) it considers that:

(a) that claimant has no real prospect of succeeding on the claim or issue; or

(b) that defendant has no real prospect of successfully defending the claim or issue; and

(2) there is no other compelling reason why the case or issue should be disposed of at a trial.

24.2

An application for immediate judgment under Rule 24.1 may be based on:

(1) a point of law (including a question of construction of a document);

(2) the evidence which can reasonably be expected to be available at trial or the lack of it; or

(3) a combination of these.

24.3

(2) a defence;

unless

(a) the Court gives permission; or

24.6

Where an immediate judgment hearing is fixed, the respondent (or the parties where the hearing is fixed of the Court's own initiative) must be given at least 14 days' notice of:

(1) the date fixed for the hearing; and

(2) state that it is made because the applicant believes that on the evidence the respondent has no real prospect of succeeding on the claim or issue or (as the case may be) of successfully defending the claim or issue to which the application relates;

and in either case state that the applicant knows of no other compelling reason why the case or issue should be disposed of at a trial.
